

Cameron Garczyk

Member Benefits Program Manager

Cameron Garczyk serves as the Member Benefits Program Manager for Ohio. In his role, Cameron works to implement member benefit programs for the over 21,000 members of NFIB across the state. He held the position of Member Services Coordinator prior to his current position.

Cameron was raised in Martins Ferry, Ohio along the Ohio River, just south of Steubenville. He went on to attend Miami University in Oxford, Ohio where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a minor in Urban and Regional Planning. During his time in college, he served in the Miami University Office of Institutional Relations, assisting in university advocacy projects involving state and federal officeholders. He also taught an introductory government relations course and was a volunteer coordinator for a US Congressional campaign.

He spent time in Washington, DC interning in both Congressman Bill Johnson's office and United States Senator Rob Portman's. After college, Cameron served as the Legislative Aide and Clerk of the House Finance Committee under State Representative Ryan Smith, the former Speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives. During his time at college and working in the offices of elected officials, he developed an understanding of working with people and honed his communications skills.

Cameron and his fiancé Aerin live in Hilliard with their dog and cat.
