

WHAT'S AT STAKE

The balance of the United States Senate hinges on the two Georgia U.S. Senate runoff elections that will be held on Tuesday, January 5, 2021. The contrast between the candidates and where they stand on small business issues could not be more clear.

- Lower taxes or higher taxes
- Less red tape or more regulations
- More employer protections or more employer mandates

Small business is on the ballot.

Candidate:	Senator Kelly Loeffler 	Raphael Warnock
NFIB Voting Record	100%	N/A
Taxes	Supports making tax relief for working- and middle-class families permanent. ¹⁶ Supports the repeal of the estate tax. ¹⁷	Would revoke tax breaks for companies that outsource jobs and supports made-in-America incentives. ¹⁸ Would fight to oppose tax breaks that benefit the richest of the rich. ¹⁹
Labor	Supports liability protections for small businesses to keep workers employed and their doors open. ²⁰ Supports national right-to-work legislation. ²¹	Supports raising the minimum wage. ²² Supports legislation that would repeal Georgia's right-to-work law, allow card check, and implement strict tests for independent contractors. ²³
COVID-19	Voted for the CARES Act which provides forgivable Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans to small business owners who were shut down through no fault of their own due to the pandemic. ²⁴ PPP loans provided over $14 billion to over 174,000 GA small businesses. ²⁵ Supported second round of targeted PPP for small businesses. ²⁶	Supports transparency around economic development programs and the Paycheck Protection Program. ²⁷
Regulatory Agenda	Supports assisting small businesses to help them survive these challenging times, keep employees on payroll and create jobs. A key component to that is removing regulatory barriers and incentivizing job creation. ²⁸	Would fight against burdensome regulations on small businesses. ²⁹
