Joe Patterson for #AD05  liked your Tweet

Assembly Member Laurie Davies has a great pro-small-business voting record. But more than that, she's also an educator to her colleagues on the struggles small-business owners face and how vital they are to the health of California's economy. @DaviesforCA bit.ly/3D58fVg

Suzette Valladares  liked your Tweet

Suzette Valladares is respected on both sides of the political aisle as someone who can get things done for the one team too many lawmakers forget they're on first and foremost—the people who sent them to Sacramento. bit.ly/3V0mh1p @suzettemartinez @kabstrat

"Central Valley small businesses have a great champion in Senator Shannon Grove. In a Legislature that increasingly cuts deals at warp speed, she has been an effective fighter in making sure small businesses are never sacrificed to political expediency." bit.ly/3SurNHW

Matt Gunderson  and Mike Thomas liked your Tweet

Matt Gunderson is a common sense, pragmatic leader who can help our small businesses recover from the damage of Covid-19 restrictions and decades of anti-business legislation. @GundersonForCA @kabstrat pic.twitter.com/c40Hqcttd

Eric Hughes  and Brian W. Jones  liked your Tweet

Senator Jones is a great champion of small business with a voting record to prove it. His effectiveness comes from being a businessman himself, an experience we badly need more of in the elected officials we send to Sacramento. @electbrianjones @kabstrat pic.twitter.com/O7r5WU2RWf

Marie Alvarado-Gil  Retweeted your Tweet

Marie Alvarado-Gil understands small-business issues and gets that Main Street enterprises have a tougher time remaining open than big businesses do. Her statement that Sacramento has to stop imposing one-size-fits-all policies resonated with us." @AlvaradoGil2022 @kabstrat pic.twitter.com/IBBVHjBVWj

No candidate for the State Senate is more qualified than Janet Nguyen. She understands the troubles small businesses are facing and has the leadership skills to get results, as she has proven repeatedly in local, county, and state offices she has held. @JanetNguyenCA @kabstrat pic.twitter.com/58MafIZROF

RogerNiello  @RogerNiello · Sep 27

I am very grateful for this endorsement.

 NFIB California @nfib_ca · Sep 27

Roger Niello proved himself a champion of small business all six years he served in the State Assembly. We have no doubt he'll be again in the State Senate. His achievements and style are what are sorely lacking in the State Capitol. @RogerNiello @kabstrat
